Deposit Administration Fee

The Deposit Administration Fee may include FDIC assessment charges, financing corporation (FICO) charges, and other charges provided by law, and may also include administrative expenses incurred by the Bank in providing depository services. The FDIC charges member Insured Depository Institutions risk-based assessments to cover the costs associated with providing deposit insurance under the Federal Deposit Insurance Act as well as FICO assessments to cover the financing costs associated with the Federal Savings and Loan Crisis of 1987. The Deposit Administration Fee will be assessed monthly at a rate per $1,000 of average monthly adjusted ledger balance. The charge is variable and is subject to change by the Bank at any time without notice.

Late Fee

Earnings deficits remaining unpaid by the date specified on the Account Analysis statement will be assessed a late fee (compounded monthly). Deficit and late assessment amounts are subject to direct debit to the account.

Late Fee .....	per month	4%

Overdraft Balance Charges

Overdraft balances and related fees are charged the Union Bank Reference Rate plus 4.0% per annum, computed daily, with a minimum daily charge of $10, assessed from the time such overdraft balances are created and related fees are incurred. The minimum daily charge and accrued interest are then added to the overdraft balance.

Uncollected Funds (UCF)

Customer usage of UCF is charged the Union Bank Reference Rate plus 4.0% per annum, computed on the average daily usage of uncollected funds for the month in question.

Not all fees and charges are eligible for offset through your Earnings Allowance. These ineligible fees and charges will be directly charged to your Account on Analysis.
