Item 8.01 Other Events

On September 20, 2021, MUFG Union Bank, N.A. (“Union Bank” or the “Bank”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of MUFG Americas Holdings Corporation (the “Company”), entered into a consent order with the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (the “OCC”) related to deficiencies in Union Bank’s technology and operational risk management (the “Consent Order”). The Consent Order generally provides that the OCC finds that Union Bank is in noncompliance with the Interagency Guidelines Establishing Information Security Standards contained in Appendix B to 12 CFR Part 30 and engaged in unsafe and unsound practices regarding technology and operational risk management. The Consent Order provides that the Bank neither admits nor denies the findings of the OCC. The Consent Order requires that the Bank submit to the OCC: written plans to improve reporting to the Bank’s Board of Directors and senior management on the Bank’s technology and operations risk, to improve the technology risk assessment process, to timely and effectively implement Union Bank’s information technology and operational risk governance frameworks and supporting programs, and to improve policies, procedures, processes, and internal controls within the Bank’s technology and operations environments, commensurate with the level of risk and complexity of Union Bank’s activities; an updated written Information Security Program and a plan to effectively implement it at Union Bank; and a written plan to improve data management and reporting practices to ensure accurate risk, regulatory and other reporting.

The Consent Order does not impose any civil money penalty or fines.

Union Bank’s Board of Directors and management are committed to taking the necessary actions to fully address the provisions of the Consent Order within the timeframes identified in the Consent Order. The Consent Order finds that Union Bank has already begun corrective action and has committed resources to remediate the deficiencies identified in the Consent Order; however, a subsequent finding by the OCC that the Bank has failed to comply with the Consent Order could result in additional regulatory scrutiny, further constraints on the Bank’s business, or a further enforcement action, including civil money penalties or fines. Any of those events could have a material adverse impact on the Company’s future operations, financial condition, growth, or other aspects of its business.

The foregoing description of the Consent Order does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Consent Order, a copy of which is included as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K (“Report”) and is incorporated herein by reference.

Forward-Looking Statements

The following appears in accordance with the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. This Current Report on Form 8-K includes forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. Often, they include the words “believe,” “expect,” “target,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “plan,” “seek,” “estimate,” “potential,” “project,” “forecast,” “outlook,” or words of similar meaning, or future or conditional verbs such as “will,” “would,” “should,” “could,” “might” or “may”. There are numerous risks and uncertainties that could and will cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed in the Company’s forward-looking statements. Such risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the following factors: corrective action taken, and resources committed, to remediate the deficiencies identified in the Consent Order; future compliance with the details of the Consent Order; and the effect that the Consent Order, or non-compliance with the Consent Order, may have on the Company and the Company’s financial performance and results of operations. Many of these factors are beyond the Company’s ability to control or predict and could have a material adverse effect on the Company’s financial condition, and results of operations or prospects. For more information about factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from our expectations, refer to our reports filed with the SEC, including the discussions under “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” and “Risk Factors” in the Company’s most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and in any subsequent filings with the SEC and available on the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov. Any factor described above, in this Current Report on Form 8-K, or in our SEC reports could, by itself or together with one or more other factors, adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations and prospects. All forward-looking statements contained herein are based on information available at the time of this Current Report on Form 8-K, and the Company assumes no obligation to update any forward-looking statements.

(1) This Order is a settlement of the cease and desist proceedings against the Bank contemplated by the OCC, based on the unsafe or unsound practices and violations of law/regulation described in the Comptroller’s Findings set forth in Article II of this Order. The OCC releases and discharges the Bank from all potential liability for a cease and desist order that has been or might have been asserted by the OCC based on the practices and/or violations described in Article II of this Order, to the extent known to the OCC as of the effective date of this Order. Nothing in this Order, however, shall prevent the OCC from:

- (a) instituting enforcement actions other than a cease and desist order against the Bank based on the Comptroller's Findings set forth in Article II of this Order;
- (b) instituting enforcement actions against the Bank based on any other findings;
- (c) instituting enforcement actions against institution-affiliated parties (as defined by 12 U.S.C. § 1813(u)) based on the Comptroller's Findings set forth in Article II of this Order, or any other findings; or
- (d) utilizing the Comptroller's Findings set forth in Article II of this Order in future enforcement actions against the Bank or its institution-affiliated parties to establish a pattern or the continuation of a pattern.

(2) Nothing in this Order is a release, discharge, compromise, settlement, dismissal, or resolution of any actions, or in any way affects any actions that may be or have been brought by any other representative of the United States or an agency thereof, including, without limitation, the United States Department of Justice.

(3) This Order is:

- (a) a "cease-and-desist order issued upon consent" within the meaning of 12 U.S.C. § 1818(b);
- (b) a "cease-and-desist order which has become final" within the meaning of 12 U.S.C. § 1818(e);
- (c) an "order issued with the consent of the depository institution" within the meaning of 12 U.S.C. § 1818(h)(2);

(d) an “effective and outstanding . . . order” within the meaning of 12 U.S.C. § 1818(i)(1); and

(e) a “final order” within the meaning of 12 U.S.C. § 1818(i)(2) and (u).

(5) The provisions of this Order shall remain effective and enforceable against the Bank and its successors in interest except to the extent that, and until such time as, such provisions are amended, suspended, waived, or terminated in writing by the OCC, through the Comptroller’s duly authorized representative. If the Bank seeks an extension, amendment, suspension, waiver, or termination of any provision of this Order, the Board or a Board-designee shall submit a written request to the Deputy Comptroller asking for the desired relief. Any request submitted pursuant to this paragraph shall include a statement setting forth in detail the circumstances that warrant the desired relief or prevent the Bank from complying with the relevant provision(s) of the Order, and shall be accompanied by relevant supporting documentation. The OCC’s decision concerning a request submitted pursuant to this paragraph, which will be communicated to the Board in writing, is final and not subject to further review.

(6) The Bank will not be deemed to be in compliance with this Order until it has adopted, implemented, and adhered to all of the corrective actions set forth in each Article of this Order; the corrective actions are effective in addressing the Bank’s deficiencies; and the OCC has verified and validated the corrective actions. An assessment of the effectiveness of the corrective actions requires sufficient passage of time for the Bank to demonstrate the sustained effectiveness of the corrective actions.

(7) This Order is not a contract binding on the United States, the United States Treasury Department, the OCC, or any officer, employee, or agent of the OCC and neither the Bank nor the OCC intends this Order to be a contract.

(8) Each citation, issuance, or guidance referenced in this Order includes any subsequent citation, issuance, or guidance that replaces, supersedes, amends, or revises the referenced cited citation, issuance, or guidance.

(9) This Order applies to the Bank, all its subsidiaries, and its successors in interest.

(10) No separate promise or inducement of any kind has been made by the OCC, or by its officers, employees, or agents, to cause or induce the Bank to consent to the issuance of this Order.

(11) All reports, plans, or programs submitted to the OCC pursuant to this Order shall be forwarded via email, to the following:
