ADDITIONAL TERMS & CONDITIONS

If an account is opened, you will receive a Business Cardmember Agreement (“Agreement”) with your card(s). You agree to the terms of this Agreement by: using the account or any card, authorizing their use, or making any payment on the account. We have the right to change the account terms (including the APRs) in accordance with your Agreement. We reserve the right to change the benefit features associated with your card at any time. Complete terms and conditions will be provided to you when you become an approved cardmember. Cards are issued and serviced by Union Bank Card Services, a division of MUFG Union Bank, N.A.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, the USA PATRIOT Act requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person (including business entities) who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, physical address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask for other identifying documents. We will let you know if additional information is required.

CREDIT REPORT AUTHORIZATION

By submitting an application for credit, you authorize us to obtain credit bureau reports that we will use when considering your application for credit. You also authorize us to obtain credit bureau reports and any other information about you in connection with the extensions of credit on your account and the administration, review or collection of your account. If you ask, we will tell you the name and address of the credit bureau from which we obtained a report about you. You also authorize us to verify your employment, income and other relevant information.

COMMUNICATION AUTHORIZATION

By providing us with your residential phone number or cell phone number, you agree that we (including companies working on our behalf) have your permission to contact you at the number provided about any of your Union Bank accounts, and that we may use text messaging, artificial or prerecorded voice messages and automatic dialing technology for informational and account servicing calls, as well as for collection purposes. Message and data rates may apply.

ARBITRATION NOTICE

If you are issued a credit card, your Agreement will contain a binding arbitration provision. In the event of any dispute relating to your account, the dispute will be resolved by binding arbitration pursuant to the rules of the American Arbitration Association or JAMS/Endispute. Both you and we agree to waive the right to go to court or to have the dispute heard by a jury (except as to any collection activities on your account). You and we will be waiving any right to a jury trial and you also would not have the right to participate as a part of a class of claimants relating to any dispute with us. Other rights available to you in court may also be unavailable in arbitration. When you receive your Agreement, you should read the Arbitration provision in your Agreement carefully and not accept or use the Card unless you agree to be bound by the arbitration provision.

BALANCE TRANSFERS

If you are issued a credit card, you authorize us to make one or more of the balance transfers that you have requested from credit card accounts or other types of accounts with other financial institutions. All balance transfer requests are subject to our approval; we are not liable if we do not make a requested balance transfer. We reserve the right to make balance transfers in the order we select and to limit the amount of the balance transfers that we make (this amount may be less than your total credit limit). If you request an amount that we do not approve, we may process a partial transfer for less than you requested or we may decline the entire request. In addition, transfer requests that are incomplete, illegible or requested to cash, to yourself or to another account with us or one of our affiliates need not be processed. You should not transfer any amount that is in dispute in order to preserve your dispute rights. When you transfer a balance from another account, we send a payment in the amount of the balance transfer to the other financial institution. We have no control over, and are not responsible for, how and when the other financial institution applies the payment. You are responsible for verifying that the other financial institution applies the balance transfer payment in accordance with your other account's terms. You should continue to monitor the other accounts that you request a transfer balance to and you should continue to pay the minimum payments due on those accounts until you receive statements from those creditors showing that the balances due them have been paid in full. This might not happen until after the balance transfer appears on your billing statement from us. You are liable for any late payments, finance charges or disputed amounts on your other accounts. We do not send instructions to the other financial institution to close your other account. If you want the other account to be closed, you must do that yourself. Balance transfers are subject to applicable fees and finance charges and do not have the benefit of a grace period. If you take advantage of a balance transfer offer and continue to use the credit card to make purchases, you will lose the interest-free grace period on the new purchases unless you pay the entire statement balance, including the amount subject to the promotional APR, by the payment due date.

SECURITY INTEREST IN THE COLLATERAL ACCOUNT

As a condition to opening and maintaining a credit card account, you will be required to open and maintain a deposit account with us to hold the funds you have provided as collateral (the “Collateral Account”). The balance in the Collateral Account must at all times equal at least the amount of the credit line on your credit card account. At the time the Collateral Account is opened, we will provide you with the terms and conditions governing the Collateral Account and all related disclosures (the “Collateral Account Agreement”). In the event of a conflict between the terms and conditions in this section and those of the Collateral Account Agreement, these terms and conditions will apply with respect to the Collateral Account. You grant us a security interest in the Collateral Account and in all additions to and proceeds of the Collateral Account. Our interest in the Collateral Account secures your promise to pay for all transactions on the credit card account and any interest, fees and other amounts that you owe us under the credit card account. You agree that, until all amounts owed under the credit card account have been fully paid and the account has been closed (a) you may not withdraw any funds from the Collateral Account, (b) you may not create or permit any other lien or security interest in the Collateral Account or transfer any other interest in the Collateral Account for any reason, (c) any attempt to give a security interest or transfer any other interest in the Collateral Account will be ineffective and void, and (d) you may not close the Collateral Account.

We may, in our discretion, close the Collateral Account at any time. Before closing your Collateral Account, we will give you any notice required by law or the Collateral Account Agreement. If any person other than us seeks to assert an interest in the Collateral Account, we may deem the account balance immediately payable and apply the funds in the Collateral Account to your outstanding account balance. We may use the funds in the Collateral Account to pay any balances on your credit card account. You agree that if the credit card account issued to you by us is closed for any reason, we may apply the funds in this Collateral Account to pay off any balance on the credit card account. If the credit card account is closed for any reason, whether by you or us, we may hold funds in this Collateral Account for a minimum holding period of sixty days after the credit card account balance is paid in full and the credit card account is closed in order to cover any transactions, fees or charges that may be posted to the credit card account after it is closed. If any funds remain in the Collateral Account after the credit card account balance is paid, we will send the remaining funds to you in the manner provided by the Collateral Account Agreement. If the Collateral Account is closed or funds are withdrawn prior to any stated maturity date, we may assess an early withdrawal penalty as described in the Collateral Account Agreement. Please refer to your Collateral Account Agreement for complete details regarding penalties for early withdrawals.

The foregoing security interest in the Collateral Account is in addition to, and does not impair or affect, any waiver of any set off or other rights that we have or may have, now or hereafter, with respect to the Collateral Account.
