Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Union Bank family of companies, including MUFG Union Bank, N.A.; PurePoint® Financial, a division of MUFG Union Bank, N.A.; UnionBanc Investment Services® LLC; and HighMark® Capital Management, Inc.

What we do

How does Union Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings, as well as:

- Information access controls
- Service providers oversight and confidentiality requirements
- Employee privacy and information security training
- Physical, electronic and procedural safeguards

How does Union Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- Open an account or apply for a loan
- Give us your contact information or show your government-issued ID
- Use your credit or debit card

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purpose—information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices apply to everyone on your account—unless you tell us otherwise.
